DESIGNING ENGAGING & EFFECTIVE LEARNING EXPERIENCES

We provide best-in-class online learning solutions, including course design and development, training, and educational technology services. Incubated within Florida International University's online education division, our mission is to improve online learning experiences through innovative design and technology.

Our rich heritage rooted in academia is the foundation of our work at FIU Online.

Since 1998, FIU Online has been at the forefront of developing and delivering online learning. Today, we have developed thousands of successful online courses and over 100 fully online degree programs.

The Continuing and Professional Education team at FIU Online focuses on bringing effective online learning to partner organizations. Fueled by our passion for learning, our team has pioneered proven high-performing online learning design via the use of innovative technologies. We design and develop training programs and courses that intuitively link learners to content in the digital environment.

Corporate learning

Effective adult learning goes beyond basic knowledge transfer. We partner with businesses to offer online training and education designed to foster employee potential and drive organizational results.

Custom eLearning

We build digital learning experiences that fit your organization's needs. Our team will work with you to plan and design learning solutions tailored to specific learning objectives.

Consulting

Receive expert learning strategies and maximize performance. We provide strategic assistance in helping organizations assess learning needs, develop eLearning programs, and make effective technology and content development decisions.

Blended Learning Solutions

Blended learning allows for a wide array of proven learning techniques to be realized for maximum learning retention. Sometimes the right mix of instructional strategies require face-to-face and online components. We can help design the program with the most effective delivery method for each of your learning outcomes.

eLearning solutions

Our core design team has over 60 years of experience in instructional design, writing, graphic design, interactive media, learning management systems, and distance education technology.

Whether it's online learning, corporate training, instructional video, technical writing or blended learning solutions, we'll work with you to assess your needs and help you select the learning approach with the best ROI.

White-Glove Service

Trust is key to successful learner-focused solutions. That's why we provide concierge service to our SMEs, ensuring they feel comfortable, informed, and in control throughout development. With our expertise and project structure, we really take the time to get to know you and your needs.

Trusted Partners

Continuing and Professional Education clients are not one-size-fits-all, and neither are our products. We build learning solutions for universities, associations, start-ups, and companies across a variety of industries, including Financial Services, Technology, Healthcare, Education, and Consumer Products. We love working with forwardthinking partners to create dynamic and effective training experiences. Together, we can redefine your organization's future.
